

LET'S GO FISHING!

Part #2: Setting Up Your Rod & Reel

1. What do we call the part of the reel that attaches to the rod?
 - A. The spool
 - B. The hood
 - C. The seat
 - D. The foot
2. What breaking strain line should you put on your light spinning outfit?
 - A. 3 – 5 kilo
 - B. 30 – 50 kilo
 - C. 1 – 2 kilo
 - D. It doesn't really matter
3. What should you do before you tie the line to the core of the spool?
 - A. Go outside
 - B. Remove the reel from the rod
 - C. Open the bail arm
 - D. Clean the reel
4. Why is it important to keep tension on the line while spooling up?
 - A. So your friend doesn't go to sleep
 - B. To stop loose loops and reduce tangles
 - C. To keep the spool on the axle
 - D. To stop you putting too much line on the reel
5. What happens if you don't have enough line on the spool?
 - A. The reel will fall off the rod
 - B. It can be hard to cast far enough
 - C. You won't be able to feel any bites
 - D. Line will spill off the spool and tangle

CORRECT ANSWERS PART #2: Setting Up Your Rod & Reel

Q1=D, Q2=A, Q3=C, Q4=B, Q5=B